

Advanced Emergency Medicine Ultrasonography Program Requirements

Requirement	Substantive Revisions Effective July 1, 2023*
I.A.1.a)	The sponsoring institution and participating sites must provide a minimum of 0.2 FTE salary support and/or protected time for program directors; ^(Core)
II.A.1.c)	A planned change in the program director leadership must be reported to and approved by EUFAC prior to implementation.
II.A.3.f)	Program director must have attended a regional or national ultrasound meeting within the past three years ^{Detail}
II.A.3.g)	Program director must have research presented at regional conferences or national ultrasound (or related) conferences within the past three years; ^(Core)
II.A.3.h)	Program director must have active participation within regional or national ultrasound organizations or ultrasound sections within large emergency medicine organizations within three years
II.A.4.d)	Program director must evaluate program faculty in writing ^{Core}
II.B.10.b).(2).(a)	Core fellowship faculty as a group must publish an average of at least one article per year over the prior three years. ^(Core)
II.B.10.b).(3).(a)	Core fellowship faculty as a group must present at least one abstract or presentation over the prior three years. ^(Core)
II.B.10.b).(5)	Option to allow core fellowship faculty to demonstrate scholarship by significant contributions to professional online or social media platforms where online content furthers fellow education in ultrasound or generates scholarly discussion focused on ultrasound. ^(Detail)
IV.A.4.a)	The majority of educational experiences should take place at the sponsoring institution, primary clinical site, or other site with sufficient resources. ^{Detail}
IV.A.4.b).(1)	Faculty and fellows will review together a minimum of 750 total exams. ^(Core) Faculty doing quality assessment (QA) in isolation does not meet this requirement. ^(Core)
IV.B.2.	Fellows must participate in research or scholarly activity. ^(Core)

Advanced Emergency Medicine Ultrasonography Program Requirements
Requirement	Substantive Revisions Effective July 1, 2023 (Continued)*
IV.B.2.a).(1)	Fellows must complete at least 1 research project that can include a meta-analysis, systematic review, or other project type: ^(Core)
IV.B.2.b).(2)	plan for publication of original research or review articles; or
V.A.1.	The program director must appoint an AEMUS fellowship-specific CCC comprised of a minimum of three program faculty including the AEMUS fellowship director.
V.B.1.	At least annually, the fellowship director must evaluate or be involved in evaluating core faculty performance as it relates to the educational program. ^(Core)
V.C.1.a)	The Program Evaluation Committee must be composed of the program director and at least one core fellowship faculty member (at least one of whom is an AEMUS faculty member) and at least one AEMUS fellow. The additional representative may include Emergency Medicine (non-AEMUS) faculty should there be only one core faculty member who holds a Focused Practice Designation in AEMUS.
V.C.2.a)	Any program which has graduated fellows over the past seven years must have achieved an 80% pass rate to meet this requirement.
V.C.2.b)	Programs must report through existing EUFAC accreditation portals or websites, board certification status annually for the cohort of board-eligible fellows that graduated 7 years earlier (or since the fellowship's initial EUFAC accreditation start date if less than seven years).

*The fellowship director is responsible for familiarity with all AEMUS Program Requirements. The revisions listed above are not inclusive.